EXHIBITION OF LOTS AT OUR OFFICES

All lots will be available for viewing in our offices at the County Federal Building, 265 Sunrise Highway, Suite #53, Rockville Centre, L.I., New York, 11570 (telephone 516/764-6677 or 78), beginning Thursday, January 15 through Friday, January 16, 1981 BY APPOINTMENT ONLY between the hours of 10 A.M. and 4 P.M. NO LOTS WILL BE EXHIBITED DURING ANY EVENING OR SATURDAY HOURS.

A WORD ABOUT OUR ESTIMATES

The prices you see listed in the catalogue next to each lot are estimates of what we feel, in our best conservative professional opinion each individual lot is worth.

THEY ARE NOT RESERVES OR MINIMUM BIDS

You may bid more or less depending upon how strongly you feel about a particular item but it has been our experience that these prices listed generally reflect a conservative attitude towards the value of the material listed.

SOME ADDITIONAL ADVICE TO OUR MAIL BIDDERS

NASCA, in the tradition of fine American and European auction houses, does not reveal top book bids that they have in their possession. This would be grossly unfair to the people who have submitted bids to us in good faith in the hopes that we would keep them confidential, which we certainly will. We will, however, provide as much guidance to you as we possibly can but this auction sale should not be confused with other types of similar sales that cut off mail bidding at a certain date and then take telephone bids only. You can phone in your bids but they will be put in together with all mail bidders and the lot shall be awarded to the successful bidder. No phone bids will be received after the closing time for this sale.

THE GROVER C. CRISWELL CONFEDERATE BOND COLLECTION

NASCA is pleased to be able to present for the patronage of serious bond collectors the Grover C. Criswell Collection of Confederate bonds. This collection, formed over a quarter of a century, has the widest span of material offered in any similar collection for many years. Indeed, as can be seen from the write ups which appear in the footnotes to each lot, there are an extraordinary number of extremely or excessively rare pieces in this sale.

It should be noted that the signatures on such bonds vary considerably. The first Register, Alexander B. Clitherall of Alabama, resigned on July 29, 1861, and was not replaced until two weeks later by Robert Tyler, a son of former U.S. President John Tyler by his first wife. In the interim, and during such times as Tyler was necessarily absent from his office, Charles T. Jones, formerly Acting Register and Chief Clerk for the U.S. Treasury, signed bonds and other documents. Indeed, because of the press of business, there arose a practice whereby Jones would sign as "Acting Register" even when Tyler was at his desk. This dubiously legal procedure coupled with the growing volume of coupon bonds, registered bonds, call certificates and the like led to the Act of February 11, 1863, whereby the Secretary of the Treasury was expressly authorized to appoint two other persons to sign bonds on Tyler's behalf. The only persons thus authorized were Charles A. Rose (a Richmond notary public and chief clerk of the Treasury Department in succession to Henry Dickson Capers, Meminger's biographer) and E. Apperson, a former treasury note signer and clerk in the Register's office. Apperson's signature only appears on the late 1863 and 1864 issues.

CONDITION

All bonds are folded and only out of the ordinary problems such as heavy aging, splits, tears, holes or the like are mentioned. All bonds are presumed to have coupons on them from April 1, 1865 onwards, unless otherwise indicated.

The purchaser should understand that, due to the odd supplies of paper used and other variables, paper coloration and size are not always uniform even for undoubtedly genuine items. Many bonds exist only with trimmed margins. Extremely close margins will be mentioned as such. It must also be mentioned that the individual cutting of the coupons results quite frequently in long cuts into the gutters of those coupons that have not been clipped. These will not be mentioned unless in excess of an inch in length.

As a general rule, "stock" certificates or other registered securities tend to be rarer than the coupon bonds, many of which were shipped off to Europe and ended in Bondholder Committee hoards. Many of these have clipped left borders where they were separated from books in which they were bound. Full bordered and nicely margined specimens should command a premium.

Where particular bond types are desired and where there is duplication it is suggested that either/or bids be submitted in order to reduce the possibility of disappointment.

TERMINOLOGY

Various terms are used throughout the catalog with which the bidder should be familiar. The term "remainder" means that the item was not properly prepared and issued to a purchaser. Such items may be "prepared" (numbered but not signed; numbered and signed but not assigned to an individual, etc.). Items listed as pertaining to the "Trans-Mississippi" refer to bond or other issues in Louisiana, Texas, and Arkansas. Special stamps were prepared for Houston and Marshall, Texas; Shreveport; and all hand written issues occur at other points. These surcharges were necessary to prevent bonds sent from Richmond to that region from being captured and used by the Union. Such items command a substantial premium over regular bonds of the same variety, especially if from a point other than Houston, Marshall or Shreveport. Arkansas items are quite unusual as are the minor Texas depository offices.

BOND NUMBERS

In numerous cases, there are terms used such as (lot 1), "No. 129 of 25 issued." or the like. Where the item is not accompanied by number ranges (as on lot 24), this refers to the bond number and the number of bonds of that denomination and type emitted.

PLATE BONDS

The term "Plate Bond" that appears in many instances throughout the catalogue immediately following the Criswell number refers to the fact that the bond being offered is the actual bond that is illustrated in the Criswell bond book. It is obvious that these are much more desirable bonds than ones of a similar type and should command a premium over the regular price paid for the same type.

ENJOY THIS OFFERING, ITS WILL NOT BE SEEN FOR MANY YEARS TO COME.

News of this affair reached New York in time for a writer's dinner at which one of the members had the temerity to propose a toast to the Confederate Treasurer. When this led to violent protests about honoring a "rebel" and "traitor", the author's reply was "Anyone who shoots a publisher can't be all bad." The toast was thereupon drunk without further objection.

74 $500. (Cr. 49). Plate Bond. ($100-Up)
All coupons have been clipped off, but the bond remains uncanceled and has written in red across the face the word "specimen." The paper is aging.
Most of these bonds due during 1864 and early '65 are quite rare as the bulk of them were turned in to the Confederate Government and cashed, the Confederate authorities then burning them. There were only 700 bonds of this due date emitted.

79 $500. (Cr. 53). ($50-Up)

80 $500. (Cr. 54). Plate Bond. ($60-Up)
One of only 901 emitted, with a top edge tear. Popular and scarce Ceres vignette (as used on Florida 1862 notes) bond.

ONE OF FEWER THAN 94 PRINTED

- 96 $500. (Cr. 68A). Plate Bond. ($150-Up)
No. 32 of only 94 or fewer bonds emitted. Apparently Duncan started printing a quantity of bonds without putting his imprint on them first (hence the fair number of A numbered bonds in the catalog.) This is an extremely hard to procure bond, with some light stains and ink splatters.
- 97 $500. (Cr. 69). Plate Bond. ($30-Up)
There is some moderate staining at the right, and the coupons start at January 1, 1865.
- 98 $500. (Cr. 70). Plate Bond. ($30-Up)
The bond has numerous fold and edge splits at the top and sides that have been taped. The fact that Mr. Criswell had to make due with such a bond surely suggests that better ones are rare or are not readily available. The only bond with the T-20 portrait of Alexander H. Stephens, the CSA Vice-President.
- 99 $500. (Cr. 71). ($25-Up)
No. 2020, signed by Tyler.
- 100 $500. (Cr. 72). ($25-Up)
The Bond is slightly aged with coupons from July 1, 1863, and the imprint of "Merrin" along the bottom edge.
- 101 $500. (Cr. 73). ($25-Up)
There is some light staining and the coupons start at January 1, 1865. No. 2272, signed by Tyler.
- 102 $500. (Cr. 74). Plate Bond. ($25-Up)
There is a long tear in the top edge and the July 1, 1865, coupon has been clipped off. Still very clean and presentable.
- 103 $500. (Cr. 75). ($35-Up)
The paper is aged to a light tan and the coupons start at January 1, 1864. No. 109, signed by Tyler.
- 104 $500. (Cr. 75). ($35-Up)
No. 221, signed by Tyler. Ink and other stains, with a 1.25 Guilder blue-green tax stamp at right top.
- 105 $1000. (Cr. 76). Plate Bond. ($100-Up)
Only 927 bonds emitted, most of which were cancelled and burnt. The bond is missing all of its coupons, is pen cancelled with the word "Paid", with an adjoining ink stain.
- 106 $1000. (Cr. 77). Plate Bond. ($100-Up)
Only 671 bonds emitted, most being redeemed. The present bond has numerous splits, some of which are tape repaired, and the paper is moderately aged. A very tough bond to get in decent condition. Coupon for 1-1-65 present.
- 107 $1000. (Cr. 78). ($100-Up)
The paper is moderately aged, the coupons start at January 1, 1865. The last coupon is holed.
- 108 $1000. (Cr. 79). ($50-Up)
One of 193 bonds emitted, with some light staining at the right, and the coupons start at January 1, 1865.
- 109 $1000. (Cr. 80). Plate Bond. ($50-Up)
One of 1000 bonds emitted and the first bonds of the August 19, 1861, emission to be delivered to the Confederate Treasury. This scarce piece looks much better in its photograph than is in fact the case, numerous splits being deftly repaired with strips and glue, and the paper itself has aged to a moderate tan. A scarce and popular type bond with a design borrowed by Ludwig from the Cr. 5 and 6 bonds.
- 110 $1000. (Cr. 81). Plate Bond. ($50-Up)
The note has the stains which clearly appear in the photograph, there is an ink corrosion cut through the bottom right coupon, which is dated January 1, 1864. The vignette was borrowed from a plate secured from the Farmer's Bank of Virginia, its use being unique to this bond.
- 111 $1000. (Cr. 82). ($50-Up)
One of only 1094 bonds emitted, with a moderate hint of paper aging. The central vignette anticipates the use of this vignette on the 1863-4 bonds as part of the Confederate States Seal.
- 112 $1000. (Cr. 83). ($50-Up)
No. 458, signed by Tyler with coupons from 1-1-65.
- 113 $1000. (Cr. 83). ($50-Up)
One of 1283 bonds emitted and popular because of its Type 39 Railroad vignette at the center. There is a small edge nick at the right top. No. 598, signed by Tyler.
- 114 $1000. (Cr. 84). ($70-Up)
One of 593 emitted, with a few stains and a small ink corrosion hole. No. 195, signed by Tyler.
- 115 $1000. (Cr. 85). Plate Bond. ($40-Up)
There are a few edge slits at right and scattered spots.
- 116 $1000. (Cr. 86). Plate Bond. ($40-Up)
There are a few scattered spots.
- 117 $1000. (Cr. 87). ($40-Up)
Stain at right along fold, similar to the plate bond. No. 155, signed by Tyler, closely trimmed at top.
- 118 $1000. (Cr. 88). Plate Bond. ($40-Up)
"Wagner & Co." was a printer hired by Colonel Blanton Duncan in Nashville, Tennessee, to work for him, and this is the only bond on which that firm's imprint appears.
This bond's portrait of Meminger led to a complaint from the Secretary who claimed it was "far too youthful." All portraits of him thereafter were appropriately aged.
- 119 $1000. (Cr. 89). Plate Bond. ($35-Up)
Light soiling at right.
- 120 $1000. (Cr. 90). Plate Bond. ($35-Up)
Though bearing the imprint of Evans and Cogswell, the printing of all bonds of this design was done by Blanton Duncan who had seized Evans' and Cogswell's shop equipment.
- 121 $1000. (Cr. 90). ($35-Up)
No. 1121, signed by Tyler.
- 122 $1000. (Cr. 91). Plate Bond. ($35-Up)
The top right corner tip is broken off and there is scattered edge soiling. The coupons start only at 1-1-67.
The Lucy Pickens vignette was, of course, used on the Type 44-5 notes and uniquely on this bond.
- 123 $1000. (Cr. 92). Plate Bond. ($35-Up)
- 124 $1000. (Cr. 93). Plate Bond. ($35-Up)
Coupons from July 1, 1863 with aging paper and small ink corrosion holes.
- 125 $1000. (Cr. 94). Plate Bond. ($35-Up)
The vignette has now been identified as that of John H. Windor, Provost Marshall of Richmond, Virginia, who was instrumental in helping Colonel Blanton Duncan, who printed bonds, in arresting his striking workmen and compelling them to return to their presses. The paper is aging, with light ink corrosion and places where the scissors cut into the gutters while separating other coupons.
- 126 $1000. (Cr. 95). Plate Bond. ($40-Up)
No. 1500 out of 2512 bonds emitted.
- 127 $1000. (Cr. 95A). ($50-Up)
1000 (1-1000) bonds of the variety emitted. Signed by Tyler, No. 239.
- 128 $1000. (Cr. 96). ($50-Up)
Portrait is of General P. G. T. Beauregard, not "George T. (A.) (Sic) Trenholm." A much scarcer bond that its issue figures might indicate, though not quite so rare as its absence from the 1961 edition might imply. No. 973, signed by Tyler.
- 129 $1000. (Cr. 97). ($25-Up)
No. 255, signed by Tyler, with a top edge tear and staining at the top of the bond.

Please note that a 5% buyers charge will be added to each lot purchased on all purchases.

ACT OF DECEMBER 24, 1861, CALL CERTIFICATES

- 145 $500. (Cr. 107). ($50-Up)
 No. 6048, signed by Tyler. One of approximately 3850 certificates of this variety emitted and payable to J. H. Trice, Depositary at Columbus, Mississippi, and scarce as such. The great bulk of these certificates are now imprisoned in the National Archives and Smithsonian Collections and are much scarcer than the amount printed might indicate.
 The paper of the certificate is aged, and there are moderate edge splits lying mostly outside the border.

ACT OF APRIL 12, 1862 COUPON BONDS

- | | | |
|-----|---|---|
| 148 | $100. (Cr. 110). | ($300-Up)
Number 227 of 381 emitted, signed by Charles A. Rose rather than Robert Tyler or his Assistant Register, Charles T. Jones, who was the Treasury Department's Notary Public. Rose, and E. Apperson were expressly authorized by the Law of February 11, 1863, to sign bonds, in order to release the Register from this mundane duty.
The bond is mildly aged with coupons from November 24, 1864. |
| 149 | $100. (Cr. 110). Unissued remainder. | ($200-Up)
Un-numbered, unusual remainder with only the last row of coupons. The view of Richmond behind Memminger was later copied on Bond #125 by Evans & Cogswell. |

The bond shows the death of General Albert Sidney Johnson and is marked by splits, cuts and tears (repaired at right,) with staining. |
| 151 | $500. (Cr. 111). | ($50-Up)
The paper is moderately aged to a light brown, and the May 1865 coupon has been clipped. There is an edge tear and one ink corrosion hole. |
| 152 | $4,000. (Cr. 113). (Photo) | ($400-Up)
One of six of this denomination emitted. The bond is moderately aged, split, taped, corrosion holded, and the upper border is damaged, as can be seen in the picture. Still, an excessively difficult bond to procure in any condition. |

EXCESSIVELY RARE COTTON CERTIFICATES OF THE ACT OF APRIL 21, 1862
ONE OF FIVE SURVIVORS

- 153 $1000. (Cr. 114). Plate Bond. (Photo) ($1500-Up)
- No. 997 of the original 1000 emitted, all but four of which were destroyed in London. There therefore exist four properly filled in and issued bonds Nos. 997 to 1000, a badly ragged and laminated remainder and the Congressional piece mentioned in the December 1979 edition of the Bank Note Reporter. This is no doubt the fourth rarest Confederate bond after the unique "Sinclair" piece, the semi-unique Douglas piece (lot 27), and the bond succeeding. The bond is double punch cancelled as is plainly visible in the photograph.

ONE OF SIX SURVIVORS

- 154 $1000. (Cr. 115). Plate Bond. (Photo) ($1,750-Up)
Punch cancelled as the former, and one of only five pieces extant (out of 500 printed) including the four rescued from London and the unissued remainder Congressional piece.

Split in seal at left. No. 2058, signed by Tyler.
- 203 $1000. (Cr. 136). Plate Bond. ($75-Up)
Only 25 of these certificates were properly issued, all of them being burnt. The only survivors are remainders, such as the present item, whose right lower border is a bit shaved.
- 204 $5000. (Cr. 137). Plate Bond. ($100-Up)
360 certificates of this denomination were emitted, all of them being cancelled and burnt. What remains are sometimes filled in remainders such as the present piece which has several large ink stains upon it.

APRIL 30, 1863, COTTON LOAN BONDS

- 207 $1000. (Cr. 138). ($25-Up)
An aging remainder bond with the name "Sullivan" engraved in the lower left corner. This last, incidentally, proves that there must have been at least four plates of this bond emitted.

FEBRUARY 11, 1864 / FEBRUARY 28, 1861 STOCK CERTIFICATE PAYMENT FORMS

- 208 $400. (Cr. 139). Plate Bond. ($100-Up)
The bond is aging with a reinforcement strip along the bottom and the endorsement of John J. Farrell, Confederate Depositary at Savannah, Georgia, across the face.
- 209 Remainder Bond (Cr. 140). Plate Bond. ($25-Up)
There is a part of the left stub present and the Treasury seal on the back is complete.
- 210 Remainder Sheet of Cr. 140 remainder certificates. ($100-Up)
There are less than 12 of these sheets issued or otherwise available, the present one having the full stubs at left and the treasury seal at the lower left-hand corner. Some of the edges have been nibbled at, and the right has several splits.
- 211 $8000. (Cr. 140.) ($125-Up)
Certificates in such large amounts are extremely rare. This was issued to pay the interest on the unique bond No. Cr. 9T.

No. 46 of 815 emitted. In nice condition, even if mildly aged, with a faded assignee.

SCARCE "SECOND SERIES" CERTIFICATES

- 217 $100. (Cr. 141E). Plate Bond. ($75-Up)
The bond is number 1250, which clearly shows that the Thian figure of 1116 for this denomination is incorrect.
- 218 $100. (Cr. 141E). ($60-Up)
No. 1235, also signed by Tyler. Very choice condition.
- 219 $500. (Cr. 141F). ($150-Up)

CALL CERTIFICATES

- 267 Remainder. (Cr. 159.) Plate bond. ($35-Up)
With trimmed tab at left and endorsement form on back.
- 268 Uncut complete sheet of four. (Cr. 159.) ($150-Up)
Complete, unwritten upon fully-printed sheet, the first we have heard of of this scarce call certificate. Evidently, they were never used due to the absence of a formal law authorizing their use, hence the employment of the somewhat disingenuous Criswell 162 forms. Evidently, from the exact identical character of the work, Dunn used one plate with four printings per sheet.
- 269 Remainder. (Cr. 160.) Plate Bond. ($45-Up)
Roughly cut left edge.
- 270 Remainder. (Cr. 161.) Plate Bond. ($50-Up)
Repaired tear in the upper left edge, clearly visible in the photograph.
- 271 $100. (Cr. 162.) Remainder. ($250-Up)
This denomination is undoubtedly the scarcest of all of the 162 series certificates. Only about 200 were partially prepared for circulation, and none, according to the official treasury records, were actually emitted. We can find records of the sale of over 10 of the $100,000 denomination against only 1 of this.
- 272 $500. (Cr. 162A.) ($30-Up)
Number 575, redeemable at Raleigh, N.C. but not issued to any particular person. Signed by Rose. First position.
- 273 $500. (Cr. 162A.) ($20-Up)
Remainder with full stub at left.
- 274 $500. (Cr. 162A.) ($50-Up)
Uncut pair complete with left tab and without any writing Positions 1 (per annum) and 2 (cent per annum) on 6th line. This difference holds for the $500, $1000, $2000, $3000, $5000, and $10,000 bonds. The $100, $2000, and $50,000 and $100,000 are all identical except for a difference in the size of the denominations of the last.
- 275 $1000. (Cr. 162B.) Remainder, mounted. ($20-Up)
Closely clipped and aged.
- 276 $1000. (Cr. 162B.) ($35-Up)
Number 1804, redeemable at Montgomery, Alabama, but not issued to any specific person. Signed by Rose.
- 277 $2000. (Cr. 162C.) ($50-Up)
No. 214, properly issued, sold at Lynchburg, VA, redeemable at Richmond and signed by Rose. Transferred on back, stained.

Number 803, certificate redeemable in Columbia. Punch out cancelled, signed by Rose.
- 279 $2000. (Cr. 162C.) ($75-Up)
Complete uncut pair, together with left tabs, but with a stain between the two certificates.
- 280 $3000. (Cr. 162D.) ($50-Up)
A partially issued certificate. No. 1102, signed by Rose.

- 281 $3000. (Cr. 162D.) ($30-Up)
Totally unissued remainder with tab at left and black mounting tab remnants on face and corners.
- 282 $5000. (Cr. 162E.) ($35-Up)
Number 451, completely fillen in, signed by Rose and hammer cancelled.
- 283 $10,000. (Cr. 162F.) ($50-Up)
No. 777 partially issued, redeemable at Columbia and signed by Rose.
- 284 $10,000. (Cr. 162G.) ($60-Up)
Rare uncut with full tabs pair. Nos. 1495-6, no other elements being filled in. Aging around edges and between bonds.
- 285 $20,000. (Cr. 162G.) ($75-Up)
No. 15, fully issued and the scarcest of the actually issued call certificates. There is a taped tear in the upper right corner.
- 286 $50,000. (Cr. 162H.) ($75-Up)
No. 239 fully issued and transferred, signed by Apperson, payable at Richmond.
- 287 $100,000. (Cr. 162I.) Plate Bond. ($250-Up)

- 290 $500. (Cr. 164.) Plate Bond. ($700-Up)
No. 887, partially prepared with coupons 17-1-65 and 1-1-69 onwards. Aged, split, repaired.
- 291 $1000. (Cr. 165.) Plate Bond. ($200-Up)
Coupons clipped up to January 1, 1867.
- 292 $1000. (Cr. 165.) ($200-Up)
No. 1976, much brighter than last. Signed by Tyler.

ACT OF JUNE 14, 1864

- 293 $500. (Cr. 166.) Plate Bond. ($200-Up)
Aging with repaired splits.
- 294 $500. (Cr. 166.) ($150-Up)
Bond has top edge chinks, a fold split at the center, and plate number 33 at the lower left hand corner. This is, practically speaking, the only bond of this act available. The bond has been fully filled in except for the signature of the Register. No. 1786.

BRITISH BOND HOLDERS' ASSOCIATION DEPOSIT RECEIPT

- 295 $5000. (Cr. 175.) Plate Bond. ($300-Up)
There is splitting along the double quarter folds, with a split hole, very small, in the center.
- 296 $100,000. Different Bondholder's Receipt form. ($300-Up)

A FINE GROUPING OF CONFEDERATE COUNTERFEITS

- 298 $100. (Cr. X34.) Filled in. ($30-Up)
No. 4088, poorly forged Tyler signature.
- 299 $1000. (Cr. X85.) Plate Bond. ($60-Up)

RARE UNLISTED DISCOVERY COUNTERFEIT USED
AS THE PHOTO FOR THE GENUINE!

- 300

$1000. (Cr. X97.) Plate Bond.

($150-Up)

The quantity issued of these bonds is 2702, not 2072 as quoted in the book. The bond has a long split at the top center, and a split in the denomination box at the bottom. The signature is forged, the portrait is too small, and the borderlines around the top denomination are better on the counterfeit than on the genuine. There are also no flourishes under "CON" of Congress.
- 301

$1000. (Cr. X101.) Plate Bond.

($150-Up)

This bond has a Dutch Tax stamp affixed to it, together with printed signatures and a written number. There is heavy staining along the top edge together with edge tears and a Dutch bond holders association stamp on the reverse. A very scarce bond.

- 302

$1000. (Cr. 122A.) White paper.

($40-Up)

No. 4998, signed by "T. A. Taylor." as are all. There are no genuine white paper bonds of this denomination seen by us to date. The lower left edge is a bit ratty, otherwise far better than the average example of this bond.
- 303

$1000. (Cr. 122A.) White paper counterfeit.

($20-Up)

Badly split and laminated.
- 304

$1000. (Cr. X125.) Plate Bond.

$1000. (Cr. XXI.) Unissued fantasy remainder.

($250-Up)

Split and laminated.
